Armored Battle At Caen

British Tank Columns Burst Through Germans' Odon River Line

By Wes Gallagher
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 28.—(AP)—British tanks shattering through Nazi defenses into open terrain only four miles southwest of Caen looked with the Germans today in the greatest armored battle of the invasion, as Supreme Headquarters estimated at 30,000 to 40,000 the total of prisoners on Cherbourg peninsula.

By Wes Gallagher
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 28.—(AP)—British tank columns burst two miles through the Germans' Odon river line and engaged the enemy in the greatest armored battle of the liberation campaign four miles southwest of Caen today.

The clash blazing now in open country may decide the fate of a large part of the German 15th and 17th armies. The enemy had grouped four armored divisions around Caen, his eastern Normandy stronghold 120 miles from Paris.

Carving down southwest of Caen in an outflanking drive, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's steel fist tore a breach six miles wide in Nazi defenses, but the peninsular base road from Caen, poured over the Odon river, and battered two miles deeper to a point northeast of Esquay.

This deep penetration sliced the road from Caen to Evreux, and threatened the remaining German-held highways feeding into Caen from the south and southwest.

Violent fighting also broke out a few miles north of Caen, with British troops pinning down German defense forces while tanks swept in from behind.

Planes Help Out
Allied planes hovered over the tank battle and lashed at Nazi reserves. Twenty-five German tanks were knocked out in Tuesday's fighting, and today's battle was on a much larger scale. Planes shot up 27 troop-carrying vehicles rushing about 800 German reinforcements to a weak spot, destroying 12 and damaging the others.

British infantrymen alone have advanced more than 10,000 yards—some six miles—since Montgomery began his whirlwind offensive Monday. The punch won Tourville along the cross-peninsular road from Caen, then

Meet Stiffer Opposition On Marianas

Americans Lose Liberator Over Yap; Down 8 Jap Planes

By J. B. Krueger
Associated Press War Editor

The Pacific war antagonists traded hard blows today, the Japanese putting a stranglehold on Hengyang in China's vital southeast even as the Americans surged to within sight of complete victory at Saipan.

By J. B. Krueger
Associated Press War Editor

American planes have again raided Japanese-held Guam and Rota islands south of invaded Saipan, Tokyo radio said today.

The unconfirmed report said 60 to 100 American aircraft struck at Guam and that 60 hit Rota to the north Tuesday. These were the third raids reported on these islands in four days, suggesting that the American navy was clearing the way for further expansion of its holdings in the Marianas group, 1,500 miles from Japan.

On Saipan U. S. marines and infantrymen at last report were meeting stiffer opposition from Japanese garrisons dug in along a mountainous, cave-lined front roughly halving the island. But the last report covered the situation as of two days ago, and Adm. Chester Nimitz' headquarters has been silent since Monday afternoon.

Coupled with the report Guam-Rota roads was an air blow at Yap from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Southwest Pacific theater. Yap, 250 miles northeast of Palau in the Carolines, was slugged with 35 tons of bombs, presumably to insure that Japanese air forces there are kept from interfering with the Saipan operations 700 miles to the north.

Down Eight Enemy Planes
It was Yap's third raid in a week and 30 enemy planes rose to meet it. Eight were downed. The Americans lost a Liberator.

MacArthur's airmen bombed Palau and Woleai, wrecked a Jap freighter off Boeroe island west of New Guinea, damaged three other vessels in the East Indies, and attacked Manokwari, Noemfoor, Wewak and their old favorite, Rabaul.

The Japanese retaliated with a ten-ton raid on Biak island's Mokmer airfield inflicting minor casualties.

The meager news from Asia pictured the Chinese suffering and inflicting heavy losses in defending Hengyang, key point on the Hankow-Canton railroad. The Japanese sent a column on a new encircling move designed, Chungking surmised, to cut the city off from the south.

Myittha was still under heavy attack by Lt. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's troops and a supporting Chinese force cut the Burma road below Lungling, which the Chinese are trying to recapture. The Chinese who captured Mogaung moved six miles northeast and took Namti.

Governor Donnell To Speak in Open

Arrangements have been made for Gov. Forrest C. Donnell, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, to speak in the open air at the court house instead of in the circuit court room. He will speak at eight p. m. Friday, June 30th instead of at seven p. m., to give people from the country an opportunity to hear him. He will be presented by D. S. Lamm who has been a personal friend of Gov. Donnell for many years.

All Republican county candidates present at the meeting will be introduced to the audience.

Witnesses Are Subpoenaed For Hearing

State Calls More Than Fifty, Defense Will Also Use Them

There will be more than fifty-three witnesses to be heard in the preliminary hearing Thursday of Edgar Holland, former Sedalia automobile dealer, who is charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Molly Mattie Holland, 36, on or about the middle of April. One of the two headless bodies found in the Lake of the Ozarks last mid-April was identified by the State Highway Patrol as that of Mrs. Holland, the other as Mrs. Pearl Fairfax, mother of Mrs. Holland.

Covell Hewitt, assistant State Attorney General, under Roy McKittrick, Attorney General, arrived in Sedalia this morning. He is questioning several witnesses, and checking over evidence in the case with members of the State Highway Patrol. Mr. Hewitt will assist Prosecuting Attorney L. J. Harned in the prosecution of the case. The bodies of the two women were found near Osage Beach on the Lake. The first body found was on Sunday April 16, which was identified as that of Mrs. Fairfax. The second was found on Monday April 17, a short distance away, and was identified as that of Mrs. Holland.

Defense Witnesses Too

Fred F. Wesner, attorney for Holland, this morning said, "I'm going to have every state witness subpoenaed, regardless of what the state does. There'll be no dilly-dallying around, as I intend to get the whole picture at the hearing."

"As far as my client and I are concerned, we are ready for the hearing and have been for several days," Wesner concluded.

The hearing is to be in the circuit court room in the court house and will be heard by Justice of the Peace A. M. Harlan. The change from Judge Harlan's court room to the court house was decided upon because of the anticipated attack.

Fifth Army Troops Trudge Forward

By Noland Norgaard

ROME, June 28.—(AP)—San Vincenzo, only 32 miles below the big port of Livorno on the Italian west coast, was wrested from the Germans after a bitter house-to-house battle that lasted for several hours last night, and today the Fifth Army was reported slugging its way steadily forward.

San Vincenzo had been converted into a fortress by the Nazis, who had evacuated all civilians, then erected barricades and wire entanglements.

Farther inland an American armored force continued to roll back stubborn enemy resistance and occupied the villages of Chiusdino and Travea. Chiusdino is 17 miles southwest of Siena, and continues through the 14th. Call phone 130.

Nebraska Governor Griswold In Nomination for Dewey

Fire In Nevada's Business District

NEVADA, Mo., June 28.—(AP)—Fire of unknown origin swept through a three-story building in the business district of Nevada early today, causing damage estimated at $50,000.

The building housed the Chamber of Commerce, the Rationing Board, Western Union, a book store and an implement company on the first floor and Missouri Pacific offices and the Elks club on the second floor. The third floor was unoccupied.

Red Army Closes In On Minsk

By Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, June 28.—(AP)—Supported by one of the greatest air attacks ever hurled against the Germans, on the Russian front, the Red Army closed in from three directions today on Minsk, the capital of White Russia.

Dispatches from the front said that probably never before had stormtroops (dive-bombers) been thrown with such strength and effectiveness against Nazi armored forces. Hour after hour they were reported searching out German tanks, plastering them in mass with their flying artillery and blasting the way for four armies converging in a great semicircle on the gateway city to Warsaw and Germany.

Without naming President Roosevelt, Griswold said "the past will have its spokesman in this campaign" but the Republicans propose in Dewey to have "the

Hit Enemy in Mass Attacks

By Austin Bealmer

LONDON, June 28.—(AP)—American bombers struck the enemy hard today in France, Romania and Bulgaria in mass attacks from Britain and Italy close upon disclosure of the first three-way shuttle assault of the war.

A cloud of 750 or more Flying Fortress and Liberator bombers soared widely over France and Western Germany bombing three airbases near Laon, targets near Paris and rail yards at Saarbrücken. By night, 1,000 RAF heavy bombers attacked the Calais robot bomb spawning grounds and rail centers east and south of Paris. The avowed purpose was to flatten every Nazi airbase in France and tangle every rail junction.

From Italy, 500 American heavy bombers with escorting Mustangs, Lightnings and Thunderbolts attacked two oil refineries near and in the Bucharest suburbs and rail yards at Chitila north of the Romanian capital on the main line to the Ploesti oil fields, 35 miles away. The Germans said Bucharest itself and Ploesti both were bombed.

Returning pilots reported flames darting from dense black smoke erupting from a bombed refinery northwest of Bucharest and the Titan oil works in the eastern suburbs.

Allied air commanders in Britain, even before today's attack, said the Germans were suffering an "acute shortage" of oil.

CHICAGO, June 28.—(AP)—Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska formally placed Thomas E. Dewey in nomination for the Presidency of the United States at the Republican National convention today, declaring the New Yorker will win in November and become the man of the peacetime American future.

"This man will win," said Griswold, "because he is faced in the direction the American people want to go."

Extolling the 42-year-old Dewey, he said the Republicans are offering the nation "youth instead of decadence, vigor instead of complacency, integrity instead of double-dealing, seriousness of purpose instead of flippancy."

Anticipating a Democratic slogan "not to change horses in the middle of the stream," Griswold observed:

"There are now 26 Republican wartime governors. In these states, the people did not change horses; they changed vehicles."

For times like these, he said, "and in a stream like this, transportation by horse is not good enough."

Speedboat, Not Horse
When the American people want to go places, Griswold declared, "trust them to get off the horse and take a speedboat."

"In naming this man, we are not merely choosing a candidate — we are choosing a nominee who cannot fail to win. The direction of the war is already set and it will not be changed by the coming election. But the election will change our direction here at home. We are here to name as President a man whose character and record give assurance that this nation will now go forward to a greater future."

Without naming President Roosevelt, Griswold said "the past will have its spokesman in this campaign" but the Republicans propose in Dewey to have "the

The band concert at the court house will be given by the Kroencke band. Seats are to be placed on the lawn for the convenience of the audience.

Troopers Take Body From Swim Pool

Improvised Drag Hooks Bring Body To the Surface

State Troopers Peter Stohr and Lloyd Amos, Sunday evening, were largely responsible for the recovery of the body of Corporal Warren C. Tooker, who was drowned in the Garden of Eden swimming pool near Warrensburg last Sunday. It was not until after a professional diver from Kansas City had given up after about two hours of diving that the patrol officers took a hand.

Going into Warrensburg they contacted Jack Frost, agent for the Missouri Conservation Commission. They obtained fishing hooks, and wire and made a drag to drag the deep swimming hole. In company with Sheriff Francis Berkey, the men obtained a boat and started throwing their drag into the deep water.

Fifteen minutes after their work was started, one of the hooks snagged the swimming trunks and the body was pulled to the surface. The body was recovered on the first drag, it was said. The young soldier had been in the water too long to attempt to save his life.

Hastily Constructed

It was explained the drag was constructed in forty-five minutes. The troopers, after driving into Warrensburg, had to locate Agent Frost, then a hardware man with fishing hooks, a welder to get the hooks welded into triangles, obtain wire and return to the scene.

Both troopers recently completed first aid and life saving courses, conducted by the State Patrol on the Lake of the Ozarks. Part of their training had to do with saving drowning persons. They were not notified of the drowning for some time after the accident occurred.

Dance Band at Sedalia Army Air Field Tonight

Blue Barron's dance band from New York City will play a surprise engagement at Sedalia Army Air Field's Service club dance tonight from 8:00 to 12:00 p. m.

Miss Eugenia Human, hostess of the Service club, desires as many girls from Sedalia as possible to attend and to be at the field at 8 o'clock.

Local girls will meet at the USO promptly at 7:00 p. m. and leave very shortly after in a G. I. truck. As additional transportation is being provided, more local girls than those registered can be accommodated.

Mrs. E. H. Dey, 312 North Prospect avenue, this morning received her first word from her husband, who has been in England, since the invasion of France. The letter, dated June 17, tells of his promotion to the rank of captain.

Convention Highlights

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—Wendell Willkie attempted to telegraph a congratulatory message to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today but was blocked by wartime restrictions.

Willkie said the Western Union Telegraph Company, with whom he filed the message, informed him they could not accept it.

Willkie filed the message shortly after Gov. Dewey's name was placed in nomination for President at the Republican National convention at Chicago.

At Albany, James C. Magerty, the governor's press secretary, said Willkie's congratulatory message was heard on the radio and Dewey's "thank you" was released to the press.

Addressed to New York State's chief executive at Albany the telegram read:

"Heartiest congratulations to you on your nomination. You have one of the great opportunities of history."

Except for the telegram, there was no other indication how the 1940 Republican Presidential candidate, who quit the race for a second nomination after being defeated in the Wisconsin primary, viewed the nomination or what part he might play in the forthcoming campaign.

From Albany, Governor Dewey sent Willkie a telegram saying:

"Many thanks for your gracious wire and for your good wishes. I appreciate them ever so much."

ALBANY, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican nominee for President, took off at 3:29 p. m. today in a chartered airliner for Chicago, where tonight he will deliver his acceptance speech before the party's convention delegates.

Dewey was accompanied by Mrs. Dewey, advisers and newspapermen.

It was expected the trip to Chicago would require a little more than four hours, with a brief refueling stop in Cleveland.

Crowds of well-wishers formed around the governor and his wife at the airport to congratulate them.

Asked by a reporter: "Do you accept the nomination?" Dewey replied:

"I will tell them at the convention tonight."

ALBANY, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—The calmest appearing man today in the executive mansion, where Gov. Thomas E. Dewey heard radio accounts of his nomination as Republican candidate for President, was Harry Whitehead, veteran mansion butler.

It was an old story to Whitehead. He had seen two other occupants of the huge old brick residence receive Presidential nominations.

One, Franklin D. Roosevelt, was elected President in 1932. An earlier occupant, Alfred E. Smith, also a Democratic nominee, was defeated in 1928.

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 28.—(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur received one vote for the Republican Presidential nomination today although his name was not placed before the convention.

Grant Ritter of Beloit, who was elected to the delegation pledged to vote for MacArthur. Wisconsin's 23 other votes went to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

CHICAGO, June 28.—(AP)—The Republican labor plank, a slashing indictment of the New Deal, basked in praise of a United Mine Workers' spokesman today but appeared unsatisfactory to the AFL and presumably to the CIO which is pro-Roosevelt.

Agricultural Plank Satisfactory to Smith

CHICAGO, June 28.—(AP)—Earl C. Smith, vice president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said in a statement today the agricultural plank adopted for the Republican platform "is satisfactory."

"Literally interpreted and sympathetically put into action, the plank is adequate to meet the problems connected with the farm situation," he said.

New York Governor 1,056 to 1

Bricker Withdraws As Presidential Candidate, Agreeable To Vice-Presidency

By Paul Miller

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 28.—(AP)—A 1944 Republican ticket headed by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for president, with Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio as his running-mate, was nominated in a whirlwind session today by a national convention that gave Dewey all its votes save one and made it unanimous for Bricker.

Dewey immediately arranged to fly here from Albany and appear before the convention to deliver his speech of acceptance at 9 p. m. Central War Time.

The nominating session recessed at 1:56 until 8 p. m. CWT.

By Paul Miller

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 28.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's name formally was placed in nomination for president, Gov. John W. Bricker promptly announced his own withdrawal—and the 23rd Republican national convention sped smoothly as a well-oiled machine today toward a Dewey-Bricker ticket for the fight to regain the White House this fall.

In a dramatic convention appearance to tremendous applause, at the termination of a rousing demonstration which greeted the nominating speech for Dewey, the tall Ohioan strode to the speaker's stand, looked steadily over the vast reaches of the teeming convention hall and said:

"I am deeply grateful to the many friends which have expressed their loyalty to me, but far more important than that to the cause for which I have tried to stand."

"I am personally more interested—and this comes from the depths of my heart this morning; personally, I am more interested in defeating the new deal philosophy of absolutism which is threatening Americans today. I am more interested in defeating that than I am ever of being president of these United States."

Praises Dewey
"I understood as you do that this is the overwhelming desire of this convention to nominate a great, vigorous, fighting young American—the noble, the dramatic and the appealing governor of the great state of New York, Thomas E. Dewey."

There were cries of "no" from some of the Bricker boosters, as the governor continued:

"What a magnificent job he (Dewey) has done as governor. He understands not only domestic issues, but their involvement in international issues. The relationships of the world tomorrow are going to be more trying than ever before."

"Tom Dewey will become the gallant leader of the Republican hosts which free America and return America to the republican democracy next January."

Bricker thanked the Ohio delegation for its support, saying:

"I am asking them not to present my name to this convention, but to cast their vote along with the host of friends which I have here for Thomas E. Dewey for president of the United States."

No sooner had Bricker turned from the platform than Chairman Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts announced:

"I now introduce Senator Ball of Minnesota." Ball led the campaign in behalf of Lt. Commander Harold E. Stassen for president. He said:

"Ours has been a clean fight. We are proud of Commander Stassen. x x x

Stassen Name Withdrawn

"As long as there was the slightest chance of Stassen's nomination we were determined to present his name to this convention. Governor Bricker's eloquent statement has eliminated any change that existed. Minnesota's delegation has therefore decided not to present Stassen's name to this convention."

Representative Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, another "favorite son," followed Senator Ball. (Please turn to page 4, Column 2)

Youngster Helping in Hay Harvest

Although not quite four, Jerry, young son of O. D. Thompson, farmer living near Hutchinson, Kansas, is proving considerable of help in hay harvest. Fortunately Thompson, who couldn't get a man to help him, has a tractor which works easily by hand and last winter he had taught Jerry to start, stop and steer the iron horse. Today the lad who isn't given the reins on the road to manipulates the tractor in the hay field while his father pitches alfalfa onto the big hayrack trailer. The proud father thinks he'll have a full harvest crew in a few years more. Jerry has twin brothers just two years younger than he is. (NEA Photo).

Just Not Enough Tires for All

Cooperation of automobile and truck owners is needed if they are to keep their vehicles on the highways, it has been announced by the Pettis County Rationing Board. Grade I tires are extremely scarce, and the number of applications for such tires are far greater than the number allotted to this county.

There are nearly 1,000 applicants now on hand at the local board who could not be served this month and the allotment for the month has already been exhausted. It was pointed out that due to the scarcity of Grade I tires in this county, several trucks of importance, as well as several farm tractors were tied up for several days until relief could be obtained for them.

Truckers and passenger car owners whose tires are getting slick, must first have them recapped if there is any possible chance of the tire being used under those conditions. There are many miles in a recapped tire, if it is properly handled by the driver of and pledged his support to Dewey.

"Here and now I want to offer my hands and my heart, my support and my energy, to what I believe is a great winning ticket in this decisive year of 1944, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, and Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio," Dirksen said.

Gov. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts next seconded Dewey's nomination, declaring Dewey "is proving himself daily as governor of our largest state."

Rep. Leonard W. Hall of New York, in another seconding speech, predicted "the next congress will be Republican—the next president must be a Republican."

A lone delegate from Wisconsin, Grant Ritter, 55-year-old farmer of Beloit, cast his vote for Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur, explaining "he's still my candidate. We didn't get an opportunity to present him."

A committee hurried to telephone Governor Dewey at Albany where he awaited formal notification before going ahead with plans to rush here for his speech of acceptance—tonight, if weather does not interfere with a trip by plane.

At the same time, Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, convention chairman, dispatched the following telegram to Dewey:

"May I in behalf of this great Republican convention advise you of your nomination as president. "Heartiest congratulations. We know you will make a winning president."

Out to Win

Even before the roll call, shortly after Dewey's name was placed in nomination, by Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska, Wendell L. Willkie, the 1944 nominee, whose possible attitude toward a Dewey candidacy was a subject of conjecture, attempted to telegraph Dewey his congratulations from New York. A bulletin over the Associated Press wire at the platform brought word of the gesture.

Governor Bricker, playing the key role in a harmony move that developed overnight, announced his own withdrawal as a presidential candidate as soon as Dewey's name was placed in nomination.

Mrs. Earl Peters, 1805 South Ohio avenue, this morning received a letter from her mother, Mrs. C. W. Biere of Los Angeles, Calif., who had received a letter from her son (Mrs. Peters' brother), William F. Biere, a prisoner of war of the German government.

Mrs. Peters received a telegram March 13 informing her that her brother was missing in action January 30, and received a letter June 18 which he had written while a prisoner but before Mrs. Peters received the telegram.

The letter received by Mrs. Biere, dated March 2, follows:

"Dear Mom,

"I hardly know just how to begin this message. I'll bet you never dreamed of receiving a letter of this sort from me, especially from this country. It goes to show a fellow doesn't ever know what's in store for him.

"Mom, I'm in good health, so there's no need to worry. It isn't as bad as a lot of people believe. This country abides by the Geneva convention, and this makes life easier for fellows in my position.

"There is something I want you to pay special attention to. Please look up the Red Cross at your earliest convenience. They can do most for us prisoners of war.

"I guess I kind of took one risk too many this time, I know, but this thing can't go on forever. So keep a stiff upper lip and be prepared for my homecoming. Give my regards to all.

"Your loving son, William."

Governor Griswold, of Nebraska Nominates Dewey for Presidency

spokesman of the future." He praised Dewey's record as a racket-busting prosecutor who "broke the alliance between corrupt politics and crime" and declared:

"What a house cleaning this nation needs and what a man to do the job!"

Praises Dewey
As governor of New York, Griswold said, Dewey has "humanized" the tax system and given the public a "one-page tax report so simple as to baffle no one except a Washington bureaucrat." A surplus of $164,000,000 in state funds "has been locked up for the day when the boys return—to stimulate jobs."

Dewey and the state legislature "working as a team" have provided a "model program" for security and rehabilitation of war veterans without "a directive from Washington."

Griswold said Dewey revitalized and reorganized New York's system and could do the same for the federal government.

The local police have had numerous calls in the past two weeks relative to dogs running loose over the city. A call this morning was made to police that a dog which appeared mad was running loose in the neighborhood of Tenth street and Ingram avenue.

The dog was described as being black with a white ring around its neck.

The dog on which Dr. Townsend has received the report was said to have bitten several dogs in that respective neighborhood.

Quickly Fit Up Planes To Move Patients

Big Transports Of Air To Be Used In Hospital Work

Captain Edwin Davis, four nurses, a medical officer and four surgical technicians arrived at the Sedalia Army Air Field Tuesday, from Bowman Field, Louisville, Ky., to conduct area evacuation activities for transfer of some of the patients in the base hospital by air to the regional hospital. This is at Kessler Field, Gulfport, Miss.

The method is one that has been worked out for highest efficiency and transport planes of the type of C-47s and C-53s are utilized.

The flight surgeon when a transport flies in and is emptied of men, or supplies, takes over and the plane is converted into an air ambulance in a minimum of time and fitted up for every possible comfort of the patients to be carried in it.

The area evacuation transformation change in the plane is speedily done by webbing, or metal racks with three, or four tiers of little holders. Quick loading of patients is accomplished by two men carrying a litter to the plane, then two others take over and place it in the plane where a third snaps it into place.

May Call For Aid

In emergency the troop carrier nurse may call for anyone on the field for assistance and must instruct them at the time. She watches to see that the patient is not jarred, or disturbed unnecessarily in this procedure.

When the plane takes off a nurse is in medical charge and only in extreme emergency does a flight surgeon accompany her. En route to destination a surgeon checks at points for refueling, or stops and when in need a wire is sent ahead to a surgeon to stand by at the place of stops.

The plane is equipped with an ambulance chest, which is a small trunk, having bandages, medicines, stimulants, sedatives as well as equipment to administer intravenous medication. Blood plasma is also carried on the plane and when a transfusion is necessary blood plasma sets can be attached to the coiling of the plane.

Oxygen tents are carried and chemicals sets for use in shock cases and for high altitudes which may effect the patient. It has facilities for hot liquids during flight and while in the air dosages of medicine sometimes may be increased, or sharply reduced, due to the effect of the altitude on the patient.

In addition to the duties enumerated the flight nurse takes special courses to prepare for emergency and this includes proficiency from threading a needle to repairing a motor.

The transport planes converted into evacuation planes are more, or less the "work horse" of the Troop Carrier Command.

The head school of the air evacuation Troop Carrier Command is at Bowman Field, Louisville, Ky., and this is to be the first evacuation from the SAAF.

Favor Military Training

JEFFERSON CITY, June 28.—(AP) — Teen-aged legislators of "Boys' State" went on record Tuesday in favor of compulsory military training for every able-bodied Missouri youth.

Moving into the state capitol after a week of practice self-government at Fulton, the youngsters took over state offices for the day and held a mock legislative session.

The military training bill romped to quick passage in the House of Representatives, with young Lt. Gov. Patrick O'Mera of University City reminding the students that "in a year or so, all of us will be old enough for armed service."

Governor of Boys' State is 16-year-old Jack Dunsford of South Side Catholic school in St. Louis. In his address to a joint session of the legislature, Dunsford stressed need of "honesty and efficiency in state government."

In the absence of Gov. Forrest C. Donnell—attending the Republican national convention—Lt. Gov. Frank G. Harris addressed the juvenile legislators as "the future state officers of Missouri."

Boys' State is sponsored by the American Legion.

CHICAGO—Here is how carefully the Dewey boys are playing their cards to win. Long before they came to Chicago, they had dumped $12,000 into California's different congressional districts, as against only $3,000 in all the rest of the U. S. A.

Also, long before they came to Chicago, they had put California's big, amiable Governor Earl Warren very much on the spot. To win, they figure they must carry California. A Dewey-Warren ticket, they figure, will be a cinch.

But the more they have talked Warren for Vice President, the more skittish privately the governor has become. The heavy Democratic vote in recent California primaries, plus the defeat of Roosevelt critics there, have the Warren camp worried. Some of his friends warn that, should he run for Vice President and fail to carry his own state, he would be politically all washed up.

In the 1916 wartime election, Charles Evans Hughes went to bed thinking he had won California and was President-elect of the U. S. A. Next AM, he woke to find that he had lost California and the Presidency.

In this wartime election, Dewey and GOP strategists are not going to bed with false illusions. Already they are pumping money into the Golden State.

Here is the list of donations the GOP congressional campaign committee has pumped into California districts.

Representative Rolph, San Francisco, $1,000; Rep. J. Leroy Johnson, Stockton, $1,000; Rep. Albert Carter, Oakland, $1,000; Rep. John Anderson, San Juan Bautista, $1,000; Rep. Bertrand Gearhart, Fresno, $1,000; Rep. Ward Johnson, Long Beach, $1,000; Rep. Carl Hinshaw, Pasadena, $1,000; Rep. John Phillips, Banning, $1,000; Rep. Norris Poulson, Los Angeles, $1,000; Jesse Mayo, Angels Camp, $1,000; Fred J. Hart, Salinas, $750; Chesley M. Walter, Oakland, $750; George Faulkner, San Francisco, $500.

In contrast, only three other congressional districts in the entire U. S. A. have received any GOP money, two in New York, one in Oklahoma.

NOTE—The dough for California came from about the same crowd which also shelled out heavily for Dewey—John D. Rockefeller, $3,000; Alfred Sloan of General Motors, $3,000; Mrs. Sloan, another $3,000; Jeremiah Milbank of Metropolitan Life, $2,000; C. B. Goodspeed of Chicago, $5,000.

Bricker "Treason"
Tom Dewey's loyal legions foamed furiously when they opened their mail the other morning to find there reprints of a most uncomplimentary article about their candidate, written by Richard Rovere in Harpers Magazine and entitled "The Man in the Blue Serge Suit."

Chief foamer was staunch, devoted Walter R. Suppes, delegate from Johnston, Pa., who picked up the telephone and asked Harpers Magazine who had received permission to reprint "The Man in the Blue Serge Suit." Harpers replied that 5000 copies had just been mailed to the Democratic National committee.

Whereupon irate delegate Suppes telegraphed Democratic National Chairman Hannegan: "You tried to discredit and belittle Dewey at time when national convention is appraising candidates. Many delegates are resentful at this unsponsored and anonymous attack through the mails on Dewey. Persons who took this means to injure his selection in Chicago owe the 2,000 Republican delegates who received this anonymous mail an explanation and apology."

To which the Democratic National Committee's Paul Porter replied:

"Democratic National committee did obtain reprints of Harpers article for distribution, as reprints arrived here only this morning."

Taft Reports Agreement Has Been Reached

Agreement finally had been reached by the GOP resolutions committee on a plank calling for an international "cooperative organization" to prevent war when Senator Robert A. Taft, chairman, emerged from committee room at Stevens hotel to report the outcome to sweltering reporters as pictured here. Taft is shown in center of photo. (NEA Telephoto).

Gavel To Joe Martin

Gov. Earl Warren of California turns over gavel to Rep. Joe Martin, of Massachusetts, as latter takes over convention as permanent chairman. (NEA Telephoto).

We get it from authoritative Republican sources that your inquiry should be more properly directed to Governor Bricker's headquarters.

Since then, staunch, loyal Deweyites have been frothing at the Brickerites.

Vice Presidential Merry-Go-Round

U. S. Chamber's Eric Johnston is the only Vice Presidential candidate running his campaign from outside the U. S. A. . . . In far-off Russia, Johnston, being received by Stalin, talking business with Molotov, is making a tremendous impression on the powers-that-be at this convention . . . They reason the GOP may need some one with a strong internationalist record to offset isolationist charges against Dewey in the fall . . . Johnston has plenty of supporters, a great flair for publicity, is a super-salesman . . . He got his start as a house-to-house vacuum-cleaner salesman after the last war, knows how to put his foot in the door, keep it there and sell himself . . . In addition to his job as President of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Johnston runs a big electrical contracting company and has three other booming war businesses . . . Born in the district of Columbia, he is at home there.

Illinois Governor Dwight Green, genial candidate of 'Col. McCormick's Chicago Tribune, isn't very excited about being a Vice President, but his sponsors are . . . Green is happy in Illinois, spends all the time he possibly can in Chicago, where he enjoys the bright lights, the broad boulevards and the night clubs. Since becoming governor, Green has quieted down a lot . . . Loyal to the Tribune, which has been pushing him along in politics, Green makes speeches tailored for him in Col. McCormick's ivory tower . . . Green has become the darling of the so-called intense nationalists, lunatic fringe of the American political scene . . . Actually, he is a good lawyer, shrewd business man and would prefer to be a senator.

New England's Lev Saltonstall came out here mostly for the ride, but he's a candidate for Vice President if anyone wants him. Son of an old Back Bay New England family, he has a good record as governor of Massachusetts, pulls well with all racial groups, has an amiable disposition and is a fast developing back-slogger . . . Saltonstall laughs at his blue-blood family tree. His first Revolutionary ancestor did no fighting during the war for independence, but was in favor of George Washington's side . . . The rest of the Saltonstall crowd were all Tories.

Governor Earl Warren, like Dewey, got his start as a prosecutor. He hasn't been off the public pay-roll in twenty-five years. A big-family man, Warren has sired six children, who have turned the staid old governor's mansion in Sacramento on its ear. It now reverberates to the noise of the eight Warrens busily enjoying the fruits of life in sunny California . . . Warren has always run as a non-partisan candidate, entered on both the Republican and Democratic tickets. Herbert Hoover likes Warren, but doesn't think he is ripe to be a Presidential candidate . . . Warren plays his politics straight, with no special twists. As a middle-of-the-roader, he has won a lot of Democratic votes . . . Warren has made a plea for labor support, but left-wing minded AFL and CIO leaders on the West Coast are very coy about the governor, using him, being used by him, but never committing themselves to Warren's support.

Former Governor Stassen's backers are happy about the way things are going . . . They're not going home saddened even if their man shows little strength . . . Actually, Stassen backers are aiming for '48 after their hero comes home from war service and the soldiers and sailors of this war start voting in earnest . . . They figure Dewey has to make it now or fold his tent permanently . . . Stassen has an air-tight Minnesota delegation behind him, made plenty of friends in Nebraska, the Dakotas, Kansas, Illinois and Wisconsin before getting into uniform . . . The special was scheduled to run over the Missouri Pacific at the rate of a mile a minute, the Missouri Pacific officials agreeing to land the delegates in St. Joseph at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

You're protected in 1000 ways

There's regulation and regulation. In Germany for instance, people are so regulated they can't call their souls their own. But in a democracy, a certain amount of perfectly normal regulation is okay.

For example, Uncle Sam inspects the meat sold in the butcher shop before it gets to your table.

And the restaurant you lunch in is inspected regularly to protect your health.

You don't know all the various, perfectly normal things done in this country to protect the community—you and yours.

The brewers were one of the first groups to organize their industry under a self-regulation program. Working with state authorities, they've done a thorough job, maintaining good conditions where malt beverages are sold.

Licenseses gladly cooperate, and from where I sit, their program has succeeded in keeping the entire industry on a new high plane of civic consciousness.

God's Front Porch

A Novel By KETTI FRINGS

Copyright, 1944, Ketti Frings—Distributed, 1944, NEA Service, Inc.

THE SCENE: Heavenly Bend Junction, half-way point between the Earth and Big Valley.

THE STORY: Old Mrs. Johnson, the gossip, is sitting on the porch after supper giving Emily an earful. Pinky is disturbed when she says that God is not sending any more messengers to Earth for the duration. It seems they can't get through the surrounding layer of misery. Pinky had thought he might be able to keep watch over his young wife Martha and the baby that is soon to be born but now despairs of it.

AT this point Pinky gave up and went inside. . . .

THERE was a large leather chair in the library, near a window. He sat there for a while, looking around the room and counting the books just for something to do. He could still hear their voices, but managed now not to pay too much attention to them. He wanted to be near, though, in case they left.

He stopped counting as he heard steps on the porch. It was Emily, but she was only crossing to the swing.

"What are you going to do?" Mrs. Johnson asked in alarm.

"Turn on the radio. Why? Stalin's on at eight, I think."

"Oh, no, you don't. Not while Father's still in the house. He won't stand for it."

"You mean I can't listen to the radio up here?"

Mrs. Johnson sighed. "I know . . . I miss it, too. It was nice when he used to go to the office . . . then I could have it on all day. Did you ever listen to 'Helen's Husband'?"

"No radios, no newspapers! Ye gods."

"I felt that way myself. I never did find out whether she got him back. There was another woman, you see, but poor Helen, she was so involved with her career and her babies—let me see, the last episode I heard—"

Fortunately they were all saved by the arrival of someone moving toward them, down the street.

For some reason, Mrs. Johnson closed up like a clam.

Pinky leaned toward the window to look. It was a sailor, a Jewish sailor, a cute little guy.

At this point Pinky gave up and went inside. . . .

For some reason, Mrs. Johnson closed up like a clam.

Pinky leaned toward the window to look. It was a sailor, a Jewish sailor, a cute little guy.

"Sorry, she's not here," Mrs. Johnson called out to him. "Had a date, I think. Went off somewhere, ages ago."

"Oh . . . thank you. I just thought maybe . . ."

"That's all right."

Clearly dismissed, he strolled on.

"NOT that it's any of my business," Mrs. Johnson observed when the sailor had turned the corner—

"Why didn't you tell him Ada went to the Square?" Emily interrupted accusingly.

Mrs. Johnson continued calmly. "Because after all, with all her faults, Ada is really a very nice girl . . . not that he's probably not all right, too—in fact—"

"Some of your very best friends are Jews, but—"

Emily's harshness was forgiven. "It's true," Mrs. Johnson nodded calmly. "Individually they're all right, but—"

"Isn't he an individual?"

"Now, look, Emily," Mrs. Johnson put down her knitting. "We have to make the barrier line somewhere."

Pinky was just about to call out in despair, when he realized that someone else was annoyed, too. The shutters at one of the upstairs windows were flung open with a bang.

"Mrs. Johnson!" The voice was firm and filled with displeasure.

Mrs. Johnson sighed audibly. "Yes, Father. I'm sorry, Father."

The shutters were closed again. There was a scraping along the porch, as Mrs. Johnson edged her chair closer to Emily, whispering as she did so. "I tell you, you have no idea what it's like. Can't go walking any place in this town without running into all sorts of people. Last night, in the Square, Sammy Grass—soap-boxing! And getting away with it, too. People listening to him. Disgraceful. A decent person can't walk there anymore without having—"

Again the shutters were opened. But no voice this time. A dead silence.

Mrs. Johnson listened for a moment, then continued rocking.

Then, innocently, she glanced around, sniffed at the flower-perfumed air. "Too nice, really, to be sitting here. Maybe you'd like to take a walk, Emily?"

She tucked her knitting into the side of the chair. "Come on, Emily. I insist. It'll do you good."

To observe the eighty-ninth birthday anniversary of Mr. Jacob Arnett of Green Ridge, relatives gathered at the home of Earl Arnett for a basket dinner last Monday.

The children played various games with awards of 25 cent war stamps going to the following: Wiley Walters, Lillie Mae Lindsey, Dallas Walker and Martha Jean Cornine. After the games the children marched around the tables singing "Happy Birthday to You."

In the spacious colonial living room in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Aubrey Blakely, Sr., of Houston, Texas, Miss Mavis Lavada Little of San Angelo, Texas, and Mr. Robert Lovell Hall of Houston, formerly of Sedalia, were married Saturday evening, June 24.

The Rev. Elvie S. Taylor of Lawndale Baptist church performed the ceremony before an improvised altar in front of the flower-decked mantel. Red roses in tall standards flanked each side of the fireplace with mixed bouquets throughout the home.

The bride was attired in pale blue with white accessories and her flowers were a bouquet of white carnations. She wore a coronet of the same flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Blakely as matron of honor wore pink and Miss Ida Nixon of Hempstead, Texas, maid of honor, wore orchid.

The bride's going away costume was navy blue with white accessories. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hall will return to Houston to reside. Both are employed there.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Blakely home. A miniature bride and groom topped a three tier wedding cake which centered the large tea table where a color scheme of silver and white predominated.

Many pre-nuptial parties were tendered Mr. and Mrs. Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Blakely are former Sedalia residents.

Miss Leota Mae Curnutt, daughter of Mrs. Karl Swisher of north of Knob Noster, and Roy Shernaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shernaman of east of Knob Noster, were married Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock by Judge Clark E. Tucker at his home in Kansas City, Kas.

Their attendants were Miss Thelma Diem of Kansas City and Robert Shernaman, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a dress of aqua crepe with brown and white accessories, and her corsage was of red carnations. Miss Diem's dress was of white eyelet, and red carnations were also the flowers of her corsage. Mrs. Swisher wore a white carnation corsage.

Miss Curnutt, now Mrs. Shernaman, has just completed her junior year in Knob Noster high school.

Mr. Shernaman, who was graduated from Knob Noster high school in 1941, later attended Central Business college in Kansas City, and has been assisting his father on the farm. He recently passed examinations for army induction and will leave for service July 12.

First Woman in Office Dies

JEFFERSON CITY, June 28—(AP)—Mrs. Annie White Baxter, reputed to be the first woman ever elected to a public office in the United States, died at St. Mary's hospital here today.
She kept her age a secret but friends here, where she had lived for the last 10 years, believed her to be past 80.
It was in 1890 that she was elected county clerk of Jasper county, after serving three years as an assistant clerk in the office. Mrs. Baxter also was the only woman ever commissioned a colonel on a Missouri governor's staff—an honor she received from Gov. Frederick Gardner.

She was registrar of lands from 1908 to 1916 under Secretary of State Cornelius Roach, and later served as secretary to James T. Quarels, dean of the University of Missouri School of Fine Arts.

Baseball Goes After $500,000 For War Relief

National League To Start Tonight: The American On July 7

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer
Baseball goes after its third $500,000 war relief goal tonight. Across the board in all four western parks of the National league, gate receipts go directly into war funds. The situation will be duplicated in the eastern parks of the National on July 26 and the American league will stage its 8-game program on scattered dates beginning July 7.

Baseball has raised an estimated $2,130,000 for the war effort including relief games by each club in the majors in 1942 and 1943. Two all-star tilts and portions of two world series games. Once again the slogan for the relief games is "Hit the $500,000 mark."

St. Louis has a double feature in the playoff of the "suspended" game of May 16 in addition to the regular tilt with the Phillies. Freddy Fitzsimmons' club held a 9-4 lead in the seventh inning when the contest was called to allow the Phils to catch a train.

The incident touched off a storm of protest in St. Louis where it was alleged the fans had not been forewarned by the Cardinal management of any deadline.

Max Lanier's win streak was unbroken and the "suspension" of play for a month enabled the Redbird ace to make it six in a row before losing although he had been belted off the hill and apparently beaten by the Phils. Fred Schmidt and Charley Schanz, who were pitching when the game was called, will go back to work tonight along with the same line-ups.

Cincinnati has a twilight-night doubleheader with Boston as its war relief attraction. Chicago has a day double with Brooklyn and Pittsburgh a single night game with the New York Giants.

The New York Yankees entertain the league-leading St. Louis Browns in an important series with Don Savage out of action due to an injury but Tucker Stainback reporting as available for outfield duty after a month's absence. Second place Chicago opens against the Boston Red Sox in another first division series. Cleveland is at Philadelphia and Detroit at Washington for a night game.

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 28
—(P)—The Republican convention shouted its approval Tuesday of a platform bearing a foreign policy plan reported to have Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's specific approval, pledging prevention of aggression
by "peace forces" without American entry into any "world state."

The GOP delegates thus adopted as a campaign document a statement of policy which Wendell L.
Willkie, the 1940 nominee, had criticized as ambiguous and which 15 Republican governors had striven vainly to revise in the party's resolutions committee.

The convention action came after at least two of the fighting governors, Walter Edge of New Jersey and William H. Willis of Vermont, had told reporters they thought nothing would have been gained by a fight on the floor. Senator Robert A. Taft, chairman of the drafting committee, read the platform and moved its adoption.
There was no dissenting voice.

Edge, who previously had called the declaration "weasel-worded," said he was informed Governor Dewey, the prospective presidential nominee, had approved the text of the plank. Both he and Gov. Willis said they were looking to Dewey to amplify the statement in the campaign.

There remained, however, the possibility that Willkie, unsatisfied with the failure to spell out Republican intentions along lines more acceptable to him, might bolt or remain silent during the presidential campaign.

War To 'Total Victory'
Senator C. Wayland Brooks of Illinois, who has demanded that the United States not surrender any of its freedom of action in international cooperation, beamed
as he told newsmen:

"The committee upheld our position."

The plank thus reported by majority action of the committee carried a promise to bring home members of the armed forces "at the earliest possible time after the cessation of hostilities," pledging prosecution of the war to "total victory."

It favored "responsible participation" by the United States in "a cooperative organization among sovereign nations" to prevent future wars, adding that the organization "should develop effective cooperative means to direct peace forces to prevent or repel military aggression."

There were some hints that concessions had been made to the viewpoint of Willkie and others by a pledge later in the platform draft to maintain adequate American armed forces for "meeting any military commitment determined by congress" but Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan insisted this was in a domestic plank and did not pertain to foreign policy.

As it went before the convention,
the foreign policy declaration carried a last-minute insert, moved up from the domestic provisions, saying:

"We shall devote ourselves to reestablishing liberty at home. At the earliest possible time after the cessation of hostilities we will bring home all members of our armed forces who do not have unexpired enlistments and who do not volunteer for further overseas duty."

The committee previously had attached to the first draft of the plank, as submitted by a postwar advisory group headed by Vandenberg, a provision calling for consultation with returning members of the armed forces on foreign policy and declaring that all peace agreements or treaties should be submitted to the senate for ratification.

Individual Enterprise
The platform proposed to put the party on record, in the domestic field, for the rights of individual enterprise and of the states, as opposed to the rights of the federal government and the president. It promised to "develop Pan-American solidarity."

With a pledge to promote "the fullest stable employment through private enterprise," the platform said remedies should be "based on intelligent cooperation between the federal government, the states and local government and the initiative of civil groups, not on the panacea of federal cash."

Expand Social Security
Expansion of the social security program was envisioned to cover those not now included, with stimulation of state plans for medical and hospital service for the needy.
Low cost housing by state and local governments was endorsed when private financing is lacking.
The platform called for decentralization of government with the statement:

"Four years more of New Deal policy would centralize all power in the president and would daily subject every act of every citizen to regulation by his henchmen and this country could remain a republic only in name. No problem exists which cannot be solved by American methods. We have no need for either the communistic or the fascist technique."

The fight over the "proposed foreign policy declaration far over-shadowed minor differences that have cropped out over the domestic planks, because of the effect that the former may have on the presidential campaign."

In Albany, Governor Dewey was silent about the controversy, which touched on his possible candidacy.
Willkie's implication that a Republican president might honestly interpret the plank to keep this country out of an international organization was not shared by all of the planks critics.

In a farm plank pledging abundant production of food and fiber crops, the platform endorsed the principle of crop control as a "last resort" measure for dealing with any future "unmanageable" surpluses.

The party promised to restore

Some Highlights In GOP Platform

CHICAGO, June 28 — (P) — Salient statements from the Republican platform:

"We declare our relentless aim to win the war against all our enemies."

"We shall seek to achieve such (peace) aims through organized international cooperation and not by joining a world state."

"Such organization should develop effective co-operative means to direct peace forces to prevent or repel military aggression."

"x x x any treaty or agreement
x x x made on behalf of the United States with any other nation or any association of nations shall be made only by and with the advice and consent of the senate of the United States x x x."

"We shall take government out of competition with private industry and terminate rationing, price fixing and other emergency powers. We shall promote the fullest stable employment through private enterprise."

"Our goal is to prevent hardship and poverty in America."

"The Republican party accepts the purpose of the National Labor Relations act, the Wage and Hour act, the Social Security act and all other federal statutes designed to promote and protect the welfare of American working men and women, and we promise a fair and just administration of these laws."

"Governmental (farm) policies must be practical and efficient with freedom from regimentation by an impractical Washington bureaucracy in order to assure independence of operation and bountiful production, fair and equitable market prices for farm-products and a sound program for conservation x x x of our soil
x x x."

"We give assurance now to restore peace-time industry at the earliest possible time."

peace-time industry at the earliest possible moment. Small business, described as the basis of American enterprise, was told it would be protected against discrimination.
It also was promised aid through changes in taxation and elimination of "excessive and repressive regulation and government competition."

The platform pledged, to individuals and corporations, post-war tax reductions "consistent with the payment of the normal expenditures of government in the postwar period."

"We reject," the document asserted, "the theory of restoring prosperity through government spending and deficit financing."

The party promised a "fair protective tariff on competitive products" to preserve domestic standards of living, but it offered the post-war world cooperation in removing "unnecessary and destructive" barriers to international trade.

In a labor plank, the party accused the Roosevelt administration of attempting to destroy collective bargaining in order to substitute a totalitarian labor front.

Another plank called for a constitutional amendment providing

Movie Shows Combat Scenes

An appreciative audience was present in Smith-Cotton high school auditorium Tuesday night for the army air force motion picture, "AAF Report" shown under the auspices of the army through the cooperation of a special activities committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The SAAF band, directed by Warrant Officer Thomas E. Wilson, presented a concert of varied numbers, enthusiastically received by the audience, despite extremity of the weather.

The picture, instructive and educational, showed actual scenes in war zones, giving to those present an idea of what their relatives in combat are experiencing as members of the air corps.

Robert Overstreet was director in charge and Tom Walsh chairman from the Chamber of Commerce committee.
